DISCOVER THE PEOPLE AND PLACES HISTORY LEFT BEHIND

A MYSTICALLY REMOTE REGION IN THE CENTRAL NORTH ISLAND

Abandoned since 2009, the 142km long Stratford-Okahukura Line (SOL) with its 24 tunnels and 90 plus bridges, all hand-built, now serves as our playground.

The quiet mystery of this seldom seen region known as the Forgotten World is steeped in history and cultural significance. Immerse yourself in passionate storytelling about our ancestry whilst exploring one of the country's most beautiful and remote locations with its backcountry ghost towns, pristine native bush, rugged hills and deep hidden valleys. Be transported to a bygone era bursting with intrigue and embark on one of the most enchanting and genuine experiences New Zealand has to offer.

OUR EXPERIENCES

Forgotten World Adventures are experts in guided experiences throughout this spectacular destination. Choose from six unique adventures, each featuring an iconic self-driven guided rail cart journey between Taumarunui and Stratford. Enjoy a front row seat as you travel through the breathtaking, ever-changing landscape whilst discovering our country's cultural and pioneering history. Experiences can also include a jet boat ride along the majestic Whanganui River, helicopter flight over the Whanganui National Park and visits to the unique Whangamōmona Hotel and Bridge to Nowhere amongst other historic landmarks and attractions.
